

Reading Derrida and Ricoeur: Improbable Encounters Between Deconstruction and Hermeneutics (SUNY Series, Insinuations: Philosophy, Psychoanalysis, Literature)

Written in the aftermath of the deaths of the French philosophers Jacques Derrida (1930-2004) and Paul Ricoeur (1913-2005), this book is an important and innovative study of the contentious relation between deconstruction and hermeneutics. Offering close readings of Derrida's and Ricoeur's writings on phenomenology, psychoanalysis, structuralist linguistics, and Levinasian ethics, Eftichis Pirovolakis introduces the motif of improbable encounters, and explicates why the two thinkers may be said to be simultaneously close to each other and separated by an unbridgeable abyss. Pirovolakis complicates any facile distinction between these movements, which are two of the most influential streams of continental thought, and questions a certain pathos with respect to the distance separating them. Pirovolakis also translates Derrida's brief tribute to Ricoeur: The Word: Giving, Naming, Calling, which appears here in English for the first time. The book is essential reading for anyone immersed in continental philosophy or literary theory.
