

Sacred Biography, or the History of the Patriarchs, Vol. 5 of 6: To Which Is Added, the History of Deborah, Ruth, and Hannah (Classic Reprint)

Excerpt from Sacred Biography, or the History of the Patriarchs, Vol. 5 of 6: To Which Is Added, the History of Deborah, Ruth, and Hannah

And I saw a great white throne, and him that sat on it, from whose face the earth and the heaven fled away, and there was found no place for them. And I saw the dead small and great stand before God, and the books were opened: and another book was opened, which is the book of life: and the dead were judged out of those things which were written in the books according to their works. And the sea gave up the dead which were in it: and death and hell delivered up the dead which were in them: and they were judged every man according to their works. It is a solemn thing for a man to be judged of his own conscience. How sweet is the approving testimony of that bosom monitor and witness! but more bitter than death its upbraiding and reproaches. To stand at a human tribunal, with life or reputation, death or infamy depending on the issue, can never appear a light matter to one who understands and feels the value of either.
