

the fabric of Happiness

Lyanne, a successful but high-strung urbanite, embarks on a journey to a far away tropical peninsular. Here she meets Manuel, a local shaman, to whom she feels an instant connection. Manuel teaches Lyanne how to celebrate the simple things in life. As a result, her own complex and fearful concept of existence quickly collapses. When Manuel takes her on a boat ride to a wild island, he reveals to Lyanne a series of secret teachings. What they planned as a day trip turns into a life-changing spiritual adventure. In essence, The Fabric of Happiness is about the quest to find happiness. It deals with common questions about life and answers them with unique spiritual views. It is best described as a self-help-book wrapped inside an inspirational literary novel. This visionary book also deals with the subjects of Eastern spirituality and meditation. You might enjoy this book if you like inspirational fiction and non fiction. Its message is for everyone who wants to travel along into the forgotten sea inside the only journey that will lead you home. The Fabric of Happiness is written by Basil Schlegel, all rights reserved; front cover and back cover picture by Jaime Verte, some rights reserved
